Server/Client Controller Setup

The Intelligent Use of Water.™
Server/Client Controller Setup
Server/Client Controller Setup

Steps to setup a Server/Client system in IQ4

- Setup a Server Controller
  - Click on the add controller icon (orange circle with +)
  - Select controller type
  - Name the controller
  - Setup as IQNet™ Server
  - The Network address will default to 1
  - Setup the connection type and settings
  - Assign a weather source if desired
Server/Client Controller Setup

- Steps to setup a Server/Client system in IQ4
  - Setup a Client Controller
    - Navigate to the server controller page
    - Select the Clients tab
    - Click on the add controller icon (orange circle with +)
    - Select controller type
    - Name the controller
    - Setup Network address
    - Assign a weather source if desired
- With Rain Bird’s IQ4, it is easy to setup Server and Client controllers
- Start by selecting the Site where the controllers are located from the System Setup menu > Sites
- Add a controller by clicking on the Add Controller icon (orange circle with +)
- Select the controller type
- On the Add Controller dialog box
  - Enter a controller name
  - IQNet Type: IQNet Server
  - IP Connection information
  - Weather Source, if desired
  - Save button
- Setup the controller as desired – programs, stations, etc.
- Click on the Clients tab
- Add a controller by clicking on the Add Controller icon (orange circle with +)
- Select the controller type
On the Add Controller dialog box

- Enter a controller name
- Network Address
- Weather Source, if desired
- Save button
- Setup the controller as desired – programs, stations, etc.
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS
FAQs